

Temple Shalom

Book Club Discussion

“Paper Love—Searching for the Girl My Grandfather Left Behind”

Sunday, April 30 at 1:00 pm

The Temple Shalom Book Club invites you to a lively discussion. In “Paper Love,” a journalist discovers a collection of letters between her deceased grandfather and the lover he left behind in Vienna before the Holocaust.

Through the letters, and her own exploration, she discovers the myths and realities behind the people who lived through the Holocaust and its impact upon the survivors.

A Paperback version is available at Politics & Prose, 5015 Connecticut Ave., NW, at the checkout desk under Temple Shalom.