

Our vibrant and diverse Jewish congregation, committed to social justice, offers a variety of learning opportunities for the entire family.

The Temple Shalom religious school curriculum focuses on experiential and project-based learning. Our rich and varied education program has something for everyone.

Israeli Dance and Jewish Music • Shabbatonim (overnights at the Temple) and retreats
Shabbat and holiday experiences (First Friday Tot Shabbat, congregational potlucks, family Shabbat services and Havdallah, Sukkah building, family Simchat Torah experiences, and Chanukah observances)

Hebrew learning and prayer study • Year-long Kehillat Shalom adult learning themes (vary from year to year) including holidays and rituals, parshat hashavua (the weekly Torah portion), and life-cycle events

Other adult education opportunities include special lectures from outside experts, discussion groups with the clergy, activities and projects, book discussions and more—focusing on topical themes like Torah, Israel and social justice.
